Greensboro Chamber of Commerce Retains Jorgenson Consulting, Inc in the Search for a New President

Greensboro, NC, October 27, 2010 --(PR.com)-- The Greensboro Chamber of Commerce has retained Jorgenson Consulting, Inc. in the search for a new President. Carole Bruce, Chair-elect of the Greensboro Partnership, is chair of the Search Committee and will lead the search.

Jorgenson Consulting will conduct a national search for candidates with experience as a chamber president or in a senior leadership position in a successful public or private organization. The successful candidate must demonstrate a successful track record in building and implementing a clear vision and strategy in previous organizations while achieving high performance with solid outcomes and financial viability.

For more information about this search please contact Todd Jorgenson, Principal and Managing Director of Jorgenson Consulting, Inc. at greensborochamber@jci-inc.net All submission are confidential.

The Greensboro Chamber is a member of the Greensboro Partnership, united with the Greensboro Economic Development Alliance and Action Greensboro to form a more powerful voice for business growth and advocacy, entrepreneurial development, urban livability, and economic development. After over 130 years, the Chamber is still dedicated to building relationships, building business, and building success for companies in the Greensboro area. The programs offered by the Chamber include educational workshops, leadership programs for every age, monthly networking events for members, opportunities for female executives to connect, and a wealth of other opportunities that weave the business community together.
